PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Payments, treasury and transformation professional with over 19 years in financial services. I connect business, operations and technology to diagnose friction, define operating models and deliver change. I have built teams and processes from scratch, coordinated ISO 20022 migrations and promoted communities of practice and knowledge transfer.

Currently at Inversis, focusing on institutional payments and process improvement. I combine Lean, project management and agile ways of working with leadership that supports people, autonomy and the ability to sustain improvements.

SELECTED CONTRIBUTIONS

- Established treasury operations and developed autonomous teams.
- Coordinated payment migrations and improved operational workflows.
- Built communities of practice and knowledge transfer across teams.
